

UN-Habitat Stakeholder Engagement Policy

Introduction

1.1 This stakeholder engagement policy aims to promote consistency in the way UN-HABITAT engages stakeholders at global, regional, national and local levels. This policy is in line with the UN Charter and with the relevant UN-Habitat and UN rules and regulations, including the relevant resolutions of ECOSOC, and builds on the experience of UN-Habitat at all levels. The Stakeholder Engagement Policy applies to the following three different forms of Stakeholder Engagement:

- a) In the preparations for UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings,
- b) During UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings,
- c) Post UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings and follow-up, including structured dialogues and consultations with UN Habitat senior management.

1.2 The UN-Habitat partnership strategy, implementing partners' policy and standard operating procedures, agreements, and other legal instruments,<sup>1</sup> including Agreements of Cooperation, Memorandums of Understanding, community agreements<sup>2</sup>, and private sector partnership agreements provide for stakeholder engagement in the implementation of UN-Habitat programmes and projects. Ad ref 22 March 2023

1.3 UN-Habitat is mandated by the United Nations General Assembly<sup>3</sup> to promote sustainable cities and human settlements and adequate shelter for all. UN-Habitat is the focal point and coordinating agency for sustainable urbanization, Sustainable Development Goal #11 (Sustainable Cities and Communities<sup>4</sup>) and the custodial agency for the New Urban Agenda<sup>5</sup>. UN-Habitat works primarily with Member States. UN-Habitat also works with States not members of the United Nations<sup>6</sup>, other United Nations bodies, United Nations Specialised Agencies and related organisations, intergovernmental organisations and other entities, local authorities, major groups and other stakeholders as defined in Chapter 4 of this policy and Chapter 11 – rules 64 – 69 of the rules of procedure of the UN-Habitat Assembly. Ad ref 10May2023

<sup>2</sup> Community agreements are agreements used by UN-Habitat to provide grant funds for the purpose of meeting a community's need by the community organisation in a specific neighbourhood, if and, when benefiting that community. This is about direct implementation, and the community is not subject to legal requirements that would apply to other agreements with partners including proof of registration, constitutions and statutes or bylaws, audited financial statements, etc. It is limited to funding small projects.

1.4. Stakeholders may attend and submit oral submissions or written contributions to the deliberations and public intergovernmental meetings in accordance with the Rules of Procedure. Stakeholders are encouraged to enhance their coordinated engagement in the intergovernmental meetings, including through the organisation of stakeholder meetings such as the global stakeholder forum in the run up to the UN-Habitat Assembly.

1.5 Decision-making within UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings remains the prerogative of Member States. Stakeholders' contributions to intergovernmental meetings can inform discussions and decision-making and can build support for the implementation of intergovernmental decisions. Ad ref 10 May 2023

1.6 Stakeholders may organise themselves and identify representatives from accredited organisations within their respective groups to facilitate their contributions to UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings. Such arrangements are referred to as a stakeholder engagement mechanism. Stakeholders will be guided by the Rules of Procedure of the UN-Habitat Assembly and the Executive Board and adhere to the principles outlined in this policy. Ad Ref 15 Feb 2023

1.7 The Executive Director of UN-Habitat will facilitate the participation and preparations of stakeholders in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings, in accordance with Chapter 8 of this policy. Ad ref 10 May 2023

2. Purpose of the Policy

2.1. The purpose of the policy is to ensure effective, informed, and meaningful stakeholder engagement and involvement in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings. The policy will guide stakeholder contribution in support of Member States and UN-Habitat at three different levels of stakeholder engagement<sup>7</sup>. Ad Ref 22 Feb 2023

2.2. Stakeholder engagement contributes to inclusive decision-making and to building support for the implementation of the decisions, recommendations, strategic plans, and work programmes approved by the UN-Habitat governing bodies. It also facilitates the implementation of the decisions coming from the United Nations General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) in relation to UN-Habitat's mandate and work. Ad Ref 22 Feb 2023

3. Guiding Principles

3.1 Stakeholder engagement in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings is guided by the following overarching guiding principles:

- a) the intergovernmental nature of UN Habitat processes: decision-making within UN-Habitat is the prerogative of Member States. Ad Ref 22 Feb 2023
- b) Contribution to decision-making and agenda setting processes in accordance with the UN-Habitat Assembly Rules of Procedure<sup>8</sup>, UN Habitat will facilitate the participation of all accredited stakeholders to allow them to contribute to decision making in support of Member States in a continuous way during UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings as well as during inter-sessional periods, as appropriate. Ad ref 10 May 2023

- c) Accessibility to public information: acknowledging the critical importance of consistent, timely, and accurate information for meaningful stakeholder engagement, UN-Habitat ensures access to public documents and information related to UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings in a timely manner. Ad ref 22 Feb 2023
- d) equality, non-discrimination, diversity of views and self-organisation: all parties acknowledge that there is diversity of views, and are committed to a fair, transparent, open, constructive, accountable, and accessible engagement process in so far as such engagement remains relevant to the mandate and work of UN-Habitat. Ad Ref 22 Feb 2023
- e) transparency, accountability, and mutual benefit: engagement is based on the premise of mutual trust and benefit, transparency, responsibility, and accountability. Ad Ref 22 Feb 2023
- f) Continual improvement: All parties are committed to continual improvements to current engagement practices, including by exploring the use of innovative tools, mechanisms, and technology. Ad Ref 22 Feb 2023

4. Definition of Stakeholders

4.1 For purposes of this policy, stakeholders that may be eligible for ad hoc accreditation are defined in chapter XI of the UN-Habitat Assembly rules of procedure 67 – 69, as follows:

- (i) Local authorities, national and international associations or organisations of UN Member States or States not members of the UN<sup>9</sup>,
- (ii) Major groups and other stakeholders (also known as Habitat Agenda Partners)<sup>10</sup> outlined below,
- (iii) Non-governmental organisations in consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council<sup>11</sup> Ad Ref 27 MAR 2024

Major groups and other stakeholders consist of 18 groups<sup>12</sup>:

Nine major groups that were formalized by Agenda 21 at the Earth Summit in 1992:

<sup>12</sup> Also referred to as Habitat Agenda Partners in the context of Habitat II, the rule 68 of the rules of procedure of the UN-Habitat Assembly, and rule 17.3 of the Executive Board and NGOs in consultative status with ECOSOC.

5. Accreditation, criteria, and process

5.1 The accreditation procedure for the participation of stakeholders in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings is guided by the rules of procedure of the: UN-Habitat Assembly (Rules 67-69); Executive Board (Rule 17, paragraph 3); the UN-Habitat Governing Council Resolutions 19/8 of 9 May 2003 on Arrangements regarding accreditation of local authorities and other Habitat Agenda Partners and 26/7 of 12 May 2017 on Accreditation; as well as the United Nations Economic and Social Council Resolution 1996/31 on Consultative relationship between the United Nations and non-governmental organisations. The procedure is as follows:

Ad ref 16 May 2023

5.2. Local Authorities

Non-accredited local Authorities of Member States and States not Members of the United Nations<sup>13</sup> may be invited by the Executive Director through Permanent and Observer Missions to the United Nations either in Nairobi or in New York to attend as observers at meetings and in the deliberations of the UN-Habitat Assembly and its intersessional organs.

The participation of these local authorities requires notification to the Secretariat by their respective Permanent and Observer Missions to the UN either in Nairobi or in New York.

In case an accredited local authority registers directly with the Secretariat, the Secretariat must notify the respective Permanent or Observer Mission to the UN either in Nairobi or in New York, for their consideration.

5.3. Non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council

Non-governmental organizations, including other major groups and stakeholders, in consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council shall be automatically granted accreditation, on request.

Non-governmental organizations in consultive status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council may designate authorized representatives to sit as observers at public meetings of the UN-Habitat Assembly and its intersessional organs.

5.4. Major Groups and other stakeholders

The Secretariat to reconfirm, upon request and submission of two annual reports of the last four years, the status of accreditation of Major Groups and other stakeholders accredited to:

- (i) the UN-Habitat Assembly<sup>14</sup>,
- (ii) the Second United Nations Conference on Human settlements (Habitat II), and the special session of the General Assembly for overall review and appraisal of implementation of the Habitat Agenda (Istanbul+5)<sup>15</sup>,
- (iii) the Third United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development (Habitat III)<sup>16</sup>,

The annual reports will enable the Secretariat to verify relevance and competence of Major Groups and other stakeholders to the work and mandate of UN-Habitat, and to the agenda of respective intergovernmental meetings according to the rules of procedure.

For the accreditation of stakeholders not in consultative status with ECOSOC and not accredited to the second United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II) in 1996, the Session of the General Assembly on review and appraisal of implementation of the Habitat Agenda (Istanbul+5) in 2001, the third United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development (Habitat III) in 2016, and the UN-Habitat Assembly, Governing Council Resolutions 19/8 of 9 May 2003 and 26/7 of 12 May 2017 will apply.

The Executive Director may propose to the Executive Board to invite accredited major groups and other accredited stakeholders to the UN-Habitat Assembly as observers to participate in deliberations of the Executive Board and related ad hoc working groups on matters within their areas of competence<sup>17</sup> through oral statements or written submissions.

a) Criteria for accreditation

The following criteria is to be met before approval of accreditation by the UN-Habitat Assembly:

- (i) The organisation is legally constituted as a not-for profit entity in a country;
- (ii) The organisation must have been in existence for at least two years, (officially recognized by the government of the country where it is registered), at the date of receipt of application for accreditation by the Secretariat.
- (iii) The organisation has authority to speak for its members through its authorized representatives.
- (iv) The organisation is concerned with issues falling within the mandate and work of UN-Habitat
- (v) The basic resources of the organisation are derived in the main part from contributions of the national affiliates or other components or from individual members.

b) The Accreditation Process

Below are five steps that the online accreditation process will follow.

Profile registration at UN-Habitat accreditation web page.

The organisation should have a registered profile before the start of application for accreditation. The name of the organisation should match with the name on the certificate of registration of the organisation.

The organisation will be informed by email if the profile registration is accepted. Ad ref 18 May 2023

Complete the application online.

Attach a letter requesting for accreditation on organisation's letterhead, signed, dated, and stamped. The letter should be sent to the Executive Director stating the competence of the organisation and relevance of their work to UN-Habitat mandate and work, and to the agenda of the intergovernmental meeting. The organisations in 5.4 above should attach annual reports for the last two years. Ad ref 18 May 2023

Required information and documents

All applications for accreditation must be supported with information on the competence of the organisation and the relevance of its activities to UN-Habitat mandate and work, with indication of the relevant UN-Habitat intergovernmental meeting agenda, to which the competence and relevant activities are most aligned. The application should include the following information: Ad ref 25 May 2023

- (i) A copy of the organisation's constitution/charter and/or statutes/by-laws and approved amendments to those documents, if applicable. Ad ref 18 September 2024

Chairs Proposal

- (ii) A copy of the organisation's certificate of registration or other proof of existence/recognition by a government authority in countries where registration is not required as proof of existence for two years including stamp of the issuing authority. Ad ref 25 May 2023
- (iii) A copy of the most recent financial statements issued in the last two years. Ad ref 25 May 2023
- (iv) The purpose of the organisation. Ad ref 25 May 2023
- (v) Evidence of engagement in the field of housing, sustainable urban development, and human settlements, especially information on the programmes and activities of the organisation and countries in which they are carried out. Ad ref 25 May 2023
- (vi) Copies of annual or other reports of the organisations for the last two years before the date of receipt of application by the Secretariat, and a list of financial sources and contributions including governmental contributions. Ad ref 25 May 2023.
- (vii) A description of the membership of the organization, indicating the total number of members, the names of organizations that are members and their geographical distribution Ad ref 25May2023
- (viii) Optional: Copy of examples of the organisation's most recent publications, articles, or statements. Ad ref 25 May 2023
- (ix) Optional : Organisational chart/ organigram Ad ref 25 May 2023

Secretariat Screening of the application

The Secretariat will review the application and contact the organisation for clarification or request for additional information, if necessary. Ad ref 25 May 2025

Approval of the Accreditation

- i. Once the Secretariat review is completed, the Executive Director, in consultation with the Bureau of the Committee of Permanent Representatives, will submit the initial recommended list of such applicants to the Committee of Permanent Representatives through their Permanent Missions either in Nairobi or New York for approval on a no-objection basis by final decision of the Committee, 16 (sixteen) weeks in advance of the next meeting of the UN-Habitat Assembly.
- ii. Members of the Committee of Permanent Representatives may ask questions to an organisation for clarification or request for additional information on activities relevant to the mandate of UN-Habitat, within a period of 14 (fourteen) consecutive days after the submission by the Executive Director. These questions will be communicated by the Secretariat to the organization within 3 (three) consecutive days. The organization must respond within 7 (seven) consecutive days to the queries to be included in the final list.

- iii. If a Member of the Committee of Permanent Representatives objects to the accreditation of an organization, the application of that organization will not be approved. Any objection must be communicated to the Secretariat at least 38 (thirty eight) consecutive days upon receipt of the initial recommended list.
- iv. The Secretariat will inform the Committee of Permanent Representatives of the objections raised to the accreditation of organizations within three days of receipt of the objection. The general basis of any objection, could be circulated at the request of the objector or if required by one or more members of the Committee of Permanent Representatives and up to the approval of the member state that submitted the objection, may be made know to the Chair of the Committee of Permanent Representatives and the requester.
- v. The Secretariat, in consultation with the Bureau of the Committee of Permanent Representatives, no later than 5 (five) days after the end of the period for objections, will then prepare the final list of accredited stakeholders for approval on a no-objection basis by final decision of the Committee. The Committee of Permanent Representatives will have 5 (five) consecutive days to approve the final list.
- vi. Once the Committee of Permanent Representatives approve the final recommended list for accreditation of organisations to the UN-Habitat Assembly, the Secretariat will send official communication to the accredited organisations and upload the list of organisations accredited to the UN-Habitat Assembly on the accreditation webpage, 60 days before the next meeting of the Assembly.

5.5 Suspension and Withdrawal of Accreditation

Accredited stakeholders are expected to always follow the guiding principles enshrined in this policy, and to fulfill the requirement to provide evidence of contribution to UN-Habitat mandate and work and interest in the field of housing, sustainable urban development and human settlements, upon request by Members of the Committee of Permanent Representatives or the Secretariat.

When the recommendation for suspension or withdrawal of accreditation is being considered by Members of the Committee of Permanent Representatives the concerned stakeholder will be informed and given an opportunity to respond.

Accreditation can be suspended or withdrawn in the following circumstances:

- (a) When an organisation either directly or through its affiliate or representatives acting on its behalf, abuses its status by engaging in acts contrary to the United Nations Charter, including aggressive or politically motivated acts against Member States and States not Members of the United Nations<sup>18</sup>.

(b) If there is substantiated evidence of influence from the proceeds resulting from internationally recognised criminal activities.

(c) If, within the preceding four years, a stakeholder did not report on work relevant to the mandate and work of UN-Habitat and of the intergovernmental meetings, then accreditation can be withdrawn.

The accreditation status of stakeholders shall be suspended or withdrawn by decision of Committee of Permanent Representatives. The decision shall be taken on the subsequent session of the Committee after the request for its suspension or withdrawal.

A stakeholder whose accreditation is withdrawn may be entitled to reapply for accreditation not sooner than four years after the effective date of withdrawal.

6. Benefits for accredited stakeholders

All accredited stakeholders enjoy the same privileges, including the following:

- b. Uphold the highest ethical and professional standards, including to support the prevention of sexual exploitation, abuse, and harassment. Ad ref 12 June 2024
- c. Adhere to the Rules of Procedures of the UN-Habitat Assembly and the Executive Board, and uphold the guiding principles laid out in this policy. Ad ref 20 March 2023.
- d. Compliance with registration requirements and seating arrangements for each meeting. Ad ref 20 March 2023
- e. Support the work of UN-Habitat, including through the adherence to and dissemination of UN-Habitat's policies, decisions, and resolutions approved by UN-Habitat intergovernmental bodies. Ad ref 20 March 2023
- f. Regular communication with UN-Habitat, exchange of information, including reporting on activities relevant to UN-Habitat's mandate and programme of work every four years. Ad ref 12 June 2024
- g. Contribution to effective self-organisation, including through supporting the operationalization of an inclusive stakeholder engagement mechanism while adhering to the guiding principles as outlined in chapter three. Ad ref 20 March 2023.
- h. Accredited stakeholders will cooperate, collaborate, and coordinate actions related to engagement in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings with other UN-HABITAT, accredited stakeholders, Member States and States not Members of the United Nations<sup>19</sup>, as appropriate.
- i. Provide feedback on stakeholder engagement in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings Ad ref 20 March 2023

8. Facilitation by UN-Habitat

8.1 UN-Habitat facilitates all relevant stakeholders to engage in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings and promotes equitable geographical representation through mobilizing participation from all regions and engaging with associations and networks at national, regional, and global levels. UN-Habitat's contribution is subject to the availability of funds and includes:

- a) Regular consultations and liaison with accredited stakeholders on matters of governing bodies, including information sharing and dissemination, the development of policies, strategic plans, annual work programmes and analytical reports. Ad ref 22 March 2023
- b) Facilitate the process for stakeholders' accreditation and registration for participation in UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings. Ad ref 22 March 2023.
- c) Mobilisation and facilitation of stakeholder engagement and participation through:
  - a. Special dialogues and consultations
  - b. Expert group meetings
  - c. Surveys
  - d. Advocacy initiatives within the context of UN-Habitat intergovernmental meetings. Ad ref 22 March 2023.
- d) Support the convening of the global stakeholder forum prior to the UN-Habitat Assembly, regional stakeholder forums, and annual global stakeholder consultations, and relevant regional meetings, where appropriate. Ad ref 22 March 2023.
- e) Promote monitoring, accountability, reporting, and the harnessing and dissemination of lessons learned on stakeholder engagement and participation in UN-Habitat's work. Ad ref 22 March 2023.
- f) Designate a unit/section to serve as the Secretariat and internal focal point for stakeholder engagement in intergovernmental processes. Ad ref 22 March 2023.
- g) Facilitate cross-linkages with other relevant stakeholders working on global commitments related to the mandate of UN-Habitat. Ad ref 22 March 2023.

8.2 UN-Habitat will include stakeholder engagement in its resource mobilization strategy, and the possibility of supporting the participation of stakeholders, in particular from developing countries.

9. Funding

9.1 The Executive Board, including through its relevant Working Group, will explore all possible options for funding the implementation of this stakeholder engagement policy.

9.2 Funding will be allocated over a time consistent with the strategic plan for resources like UN Habitat staff, publications, event organization, and the production of knowledge products.
